

Attention: The call for articles is closed for the Fall 2014 newsletter as of October 1, 2014

CAEPC is soliciting current articles relating to the estate planning industry and membership news for inclusion in their Fall 2014 newsletter.

This is your chance to share your knowledge and expertise with your fellow CAEPC members.

Article should be:

- Related to educating fellow members on estate planning practices/current happenings
- 200-300 words in a word document and may include a small graphic or author's headshot (Submit article and graphic as separate attachments-graphic must be in a .jpeg format, 1 MB max)

Articles should avoid:

- Content of a marketing nature
- Controversial or argumentative articles
- Unsubstantiated or inflated claims

All articles are gratefully received, but owing to space and editorial consideration, not all will be published in the newsletter. The committee's estimate of 2-3 articles will be selected.

Forward article for consideration to the newsletter committee via email at harry.calivas1@wellsfargoadvisors.com with a copy to info@caepec.org.

Deadline for submission is October 3, 2014

CAEPC would also like the opportunity to highlight member news on a personal level as appropriate. Some example of member news:

- Change in company/position
- Newly acquired designations relating to estate planning field
- Birthdays/anniversaries/newlyweds/birth of a child
- Personal accomplishments (marathons, community involvement, walk on the moon, etc.)

Please provide member news in the body of an email or a word document. Please limit member news to single statements such as:

- Recently married
- Just celebrated 50 year marriage anniversary
- Enjoyed the birth of our baby girl last month
- Ran the PF Chang's Rock 'n' Roll Marathon
- Passed the Arizona State Bar
- Achieved the JD designation

Forward news for consideration to the newsletter committee via email at harry.calivas1@wellsfargoadvisors.com with a copy to info@caepec.org. Deadline for submission, October 3, 2014.

Feel free to email info@caepec.org with any questions or clarifications as needed.

Thank you for your submissions and in making this spring's CAEPC newsletter robust!

Respectfully,
The CAEPC Newsletter Committee
